SURAT CITY & HOW TO REACH

Surat is a well-developed commercial city in Gujarat state. It is also administrative capital of the Surat district. Surat is famous for its diamond and textile industries. It is at the heart of the world's diamond-polishing industry. It is also the largest manufacture of silk and synthetic textiles, and dress materials. Several large scale industries and establishments are located in the city (e.g., RIL, ONGC, NTPC, GAIL, L&T, ESSAR, NTPC, KRIBHCO, etc.). Surat city is a hospitable host to numerous congresses and conferences. Surat is well connected by road, railway and air from Mumbai, Delhi, Ahmedabad, and Baroda. Direct flights operate daily between Delhi and Surat. The institute is situated 5 km away from Surat Airport and 10 km from railway station. Cabs and auto rickshaws are available on demand. The temperature in March will be around 30°C.

THE INSTITUTE

The institute was established as one of the Regional Engineering Colleges in 1961 and upgraded as a National Institute of Technology by Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India on 4th October 2002. It is transforming fast along IIT standards and is now serving the society with increased intake of undergraduate students. It offers six UG programmes and, seventeen PG programmes and PhD programme in all disciplines. It is one of the pioneering institutions and has contributed many outstanding engineers in India and abroad. There is a constant process of upgradation and innovativeness amongst the academics which has resulted in bagging prestigious industrial and consultancy projects in the recent past. The institute has an excellent placement record with a number of top ranking companies visiting the campus every year.

THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Mechanical Engineering came into existence in 1961. The department has 39 qualified and dedicated faculty members with the specialization in various areas. Department has conducted various international and national conferences on the topic of recent interest in recent past. Many research papers have been published in the related field in International/National journals and conferences of repute.

The department offers one UG programme in Mechanical Engineering, five PG programmes (Mechanical Engineering, Turbo Machines, Manufacturing Engineering, CAD-CAM and Thermal System Design) and a research programme leading to Ph.D. degree including Ph.D. programme under QIP.

THE CONFERENCE

The National conference on Advances in Materials and Product Design (AMPD 2017) is being organized by Department of Mechanical Engineering, SVNIT Surat to bring researchers and experts from academic institutions, industries and research organisations on a common platform for sharing of knowledge, expertise and experience in the latest technologies being adapted in the field of materials and product design. It will help in bridging the gap between academic, research and industry which is prime need of the day. The theme of the conference is multidisciplinary.
