Organized by

Electronics Engineering Department

S. V. National Institute of Technology

Surat - 395 007 (Gujarat) India

Website: www.svnit.ac.in

Coordinator

Dr. K. P. Upla

Course Content

Quality research papers writing is an essential component for the researchers. The content of the course is divided into two major aspects: 1. How to use L^AT_EX? and 2. How to write technical papers? L^AT_EX is a standard typesetting tool for writing articles, papers, thesis, books, etc. In L^AT_EX, following topics will be covered:

- Introduction to typesetting program - L^AT_EX
- Article and paper writing in L^AT_EX
- Thesis writing with L^AT_EX
- Preparing presentation with L^AT_EX

Along with L^AT_EX, course is also intended to explore following major concerns related to technical writing:

- How to write conference or journal papers?
- How to publish papers in reputed conferences or journals?
- Role of English language in technical writing.
