About the Programme

Writing and publishing papers help us share our research with the global audience. With UGC, AICTE, and MHE expecting Indian researchers to publish in internationally acclaimed SCI-indexed/SCOPUS indexed journals, writing quality research papers, thesis and books have become all the more challenging. Most research scholars who enrol in PhD course face difficulty in writing paper that is precise, objective, accurate and fully referenced. Hence, this program aims to address these problems faced by multi-disciplinary researchers of India by inviting the most prolific writers and researchers from IITs, NITs and EFLU to teach, train and share the special conventions of effective writing.
