

BEST YOUNG RESEARCHER NATIONAL AWARDEE

Miss Damyantiben Govindbhai Badagha, PhD Research Scholar of Applied Mechanics Department, pursuing her PhD under the supervision of Dr C D Modhera, Professor, Applied Mechanics Department has achieved Prestigious IRDP Best Young Researcher National Award 2018, from the Innovative Research Developers and Publishers, Chennai for her remarkable achievements in Research and Publications. IRDP is a reputed Group of Journals are impact factored, highly indexed, scholarly open access, peer-reviewed, interdisciplinary, and fully refereed journal focusing on theories, methods and applications to promote researches and related activities in various Subjects. The purpose of this Award is to Recognize, Honour and Encourage to promote her research through this platform. IRDP selected 75 Professionals from all over the World and she is one among them. The selection is made up from 4, 908, 11 profiles of various experts. This award has been given for the research and publication from her PhD research work, which is financially awarded by DST Gujcost and under the supervision & guidance of Dr C D Modhera, Professor, Applied Mechanics Department, SVNIT, Surat.

Photograph of Receiving Best Young Researcher National Award

Photograph of Shield, Medal and Certificate